Tutoring Paths

What path is best for your student? Check out our top tutoring services offered!

Test Prep: Standardized test scores can open many doors for your student. We want to help them get there. Our tutors have a lot of experience with helping students prepare for both the SAT and ACT. Through individualized test prep tutoring and official practice tests, your student will know exactly what to expect and be prepared for come test day!

Homework Help: School is tough enough. Don't let being confused on homework hold your student back. Our tutors can walk through your student's homework assignments with them, making sure they understand along the way and can confidently complete their assignments. Tutors also use this time to identify and bridge any gaps in understanding. Weekly sessions also help hold your student accountable for finishing their assignments.
